

UNC Archaeology Colloquium

Power from the Beneath World: Images of the Underwater Panther in Mississippian Art

presented by

Dr. F. Kent Reilly

Center for the Study of Arts and Symbolism of Ancient America
Texas State University

Dr. Reilly will discuss the meaning and style of feline and serpent imagery produced by the Mississippian cultures of the American South in the period from ca. AD 1200-1500.

Friday, February 17, 2012

3:00 pm

Hyde Hall, Room 210

(IAH Seminar Room)

Curriculum in Archaeology, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill