

CSAS Hutchins Lecture

The Art and Iconography of the Ancient American South

presented by

Dr. F. Kent Reilly

Center for the Study of Arts and Symbolism of Ancient America
Texas State University

Dr. Reilly will give an overview of recent advances in the study of Precolumbian art and iconography in the American South, focusing on the period from AD 1000 to 1400.

Thursday, February 16, 2012
4:30 pm
Graham Memorial, Room 039
(Kresge Foundation Common Room)

Center for the Study of the American South, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill