<sup>1</sup>Dickeson (1948) illustrates several vessels in articles published in The Lotus. In some instances, these can be identified with vessels illustrated by Culin (1900), but proveniences do not agree with those published by Culin. The University Museum catalogue in some instances also does not agree with proveniences published by Culin. Given this situation, all of the Dickeson collection proveniences should be regarded as suspect.

- 19) Lemley and Dickinson collections from Bayou Macon sites in Arkansas. Thomas Gilcrease Institute, Tulsa, Oklahoma:
- Alma Brown (17-K-3)
  - Medley Place (18-K-1)
  - West Lake (18-K-2)
  - Jones Place (18-K-5)
  - Marschiemer Place
- 20) Swift collection from unidentified site (Swift site) in Upper Tensas Basin. Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.
- 21) Moore collection from unspecified sites in Louisiana, Louisiana State Museum, New Orleans, Louisiana.
