

Directions to Mark Hewitt's Pottery

From Chapel Hill, Durham and the North:

- Head south on 15/501 all the way to the Courthouse in the center of Pittsboro.
- (Do not get on the bypass 4 miles north of town).
- At the Courthouse turn left on Business/Old 64 East towards Raleigh.
- Go 2 miles. Up ahead you will see a big yellow-and-blue billboard.
- Turn right at the base of the billboard on Hanks Chapel Road.
- Take an immediate left, still on Hanks Chapel Road, and go half a mile to the second road on your right.
- Turn right on Johnny Burke Road, and proceed half a mile until the pavement ends, then follow the gravel driveway a short distance to the pottery, which is at the very end.

From Raleigh and the East:

- From the Beltline, get on US 1 and 64 South towards Sanford and Asheboro.
- At MacGregor Downs turn onto 64 West to Asheboro and Pittsboro.
- Travel about 20 minutes to Jordan Lake, continuing across the Lake on 64.
- Once you cross over Jordan Lake, go about 3 miles and you will pass a CITGO gas station on your right.
- Continue on 64 down a long gentle incline to the Haw River bridge, and get into the left lane.
- 200 yards beyond the bridge turn left on Foxfire Trace.
- Go to the top of the hill and turn left on Dee Farrell Road.
- Go about half a mile to a Stop sign and turn right on Hanks Chapel Road.
- Go another mile to Johnny Burke Road and turn left.
- Proceed half a mile until the pavement ends, then follow the gravel driveway a short distance to the pottery, which is at the very end.
