Week 8: Middle Woodland

Major themes in the study of Middle Woodland cultures have been farming, long-distance circulation of goods, and mortuary ceremonialism. This week’s readings deal with each of these themes in turn. The supplemental readings give you an opportunity to explore mound construction and mortuary ritual in more detail, by focusing on the evidence from a particular site.

General Readings:

Supplemental Readings:

Optional Readings: